

Mayflower Primary School

Assemblies – Spring Term 2023

This helpful table will provide basic details of the assembly focus on a week-by-week basis. 2-themes are included, the Monday assembly (led by the Head Teacher and delivered to each Key Stage, with necessary adjustments and narrative), and the Friday assembly, which is whole-school. Between Monday and Friday, achievement assemblies are developed in each year group, and class teachers will also follow-up on the key themes.

The Monday Assembly	The Friday Assembly	This Week's Song	This Week's Dojo Challenge
02.01.23 Staff training day	06.01.23 Triad monitoring visit	Back in School Again We are in it Together	None
09.01.23 Epiphany, followed by the story of the Lion and the Mouse	13.01.23 Oona the Shark, focus on the challenge of making new friends (Deputy Head Teacher)	The School Rule Song We Shall Overcome	The mouse was able to change and taught the lion a lesson. What changes do you want to make this year for the better?
16.01.23 The voyages of James Cook, followed by the Hindu story of God being in everyone and everything	20.01.23 A celebration of the Chinese New Year, followed by the story of the Jade Emperor. (Head Teacher)	The Losing Things Song	What can you do to show love and care for the beautiful planet we have been gifted?
23.01.23 On this day in 1973, agreement reached to end Vietnam War, the story of the Bear who went to War	27.01.23 A celebration of Martin Luther King Day, which takes place in January every year (Head Teacher)	We shall overcome	When things are difficult, what can you do to make them better?

The Monday Assembly	The Friday Assembly	This Week's Song	This Week's Dojo Challenge
30.01.23 Holocaust Memorial Day, reference to be made to the Living Well Together Project (SPC)	03.02.23 To be confirmed (Assistant Head Teacher)	A Little bit of Kindness	In what ways can we all live well together?
06.02.23 Remembering the birth of Rosa Parks and the bravery she showed against the segregation laws in the US	10.02.23 Safer Internet Day on 07.02.23 (Deputy Head Teacher)	To be confirmed	Come and tell me some important facts about Rosa Parks. What does she mean to you?
13.02.23 The Beatles recorded their first ever album, followed by a story about being the first to do something significant (NA)	17.02.23 To be confirmed (Head Teacher)	With a Little Help from my Friends	There have been so many firsts. Come and tell me about your favourite pioneer.
Half Term	Half Term	Half Term	Half Term
27.02.23 The love of books, our favourite books and authors	02.03.23 (Thursday) This assembly will focus on World Book Day!	This is a Wonderful Thing	What is your favourite book and author? Come and tell me some amazing facts about them.
06.03.23 Howard Carter, the first opening of King Tutankhamen tomb, the morality of what happened next	10.03.23 The beginning of British Science Week (Assistant Head Teacher)	The Gnu Song	What wonders of archology inspire you? Can you think of any discoveries that have yet to be made?

13.03.23 Getting ready for the celebration of St. Patrick's Day (17 th March 2023)	17.03.23 Year 1 A celebration of the spring term PBL	Life is a Wonderful Thing	What does the story of St. Patrick teach us, and how can we see this in our school today? (focus on persevering)
20.03.23 A celebration of Mother's Day (19.03.23), and the significance of this in Christianity	24.03.23 To be confirmed (Head Teacher)	Put on a Smile	In what ways did you show gratitude to your mother last Sunday?
27.03.23 Focus on the crowing of Edward the Confessor, and how this contributes to British History	31.03.23 Year 4/Year 5 Performance!	Just Sing!	What is the significance of Edward the Confessor to 1066?