

Wow what a busy first few weeks! We would love to hear how you feel your child has settled into their new class in Reception.

I feel as though Zakariya has settled really well into their new class. He always looks forward to school and enjoys spending time with his friends

Wow what a busy first few weeks! We would love to hear how you feel your child has settled into their new class in Reception.

Maryam loves coming to school. She enjoys playing with the sand table. She enjoys painting and playing in the playground. She's made friends and is happy in her new classroom. She seats very happy around her teachers